OLIVA

Oliva cigars have found a home in Nicaragua where they are currently the second largest grower of Cuban seed tobacco.

While blends such as the Oliva Serie V and Serie G tend to be fuller-bodied, Oliva has expanded their lines to include milder smokes like Flor de Oliva

Nicaragua

Inspired by Zino Davidoff's pioneering spirit, Davidoff's master blenders went on an exploration for a new type of blend that would stimulate both the bitter and sweet taste buds.

Finally, they found it in Nicaragua's ultra-rich volcanic soil.

It took 10 years of patient curing and aging to tame the wilder tendencies of these tobaccos
